

TODAY AS YESTERDAY: MEMORY, TRAUMA AND MENTAL HEALTH

International Working Seminar

February 1st 2018

Old prison building La Model. Barcelona

PROGRAMA

9	Opening speech	Ricard Vinyes Josep Vilajoana	Barcelona City Council Catalunya Psychology College
---	----------------	----------------------------------	--

Morning training meetings

9.30 - 10.30	The trace of the Nazi holocaust on survivors and future generations Master Class English session	Suzanne Kaplan	Psychologist - Psychoanalyst Hayman Prize for Published Work Pertaining to Traumatized Children and Adults (2007)
--------------------	--	----------------	--

Coffee Break (from 11 to 11.30)

11.30 - 13.30	Roundtable Listening to generations First Interventions by:	Joan Pijuan Núria Alcaraz Joan-Andreu Bajet Helena Tornero	Intergenerational Trauma Systemic femicide View from sexual orientation Right of refuge and asylum
---------------------	--	---	---

Break (from 13.30 to 15)

Afternoon training meetings

15 - 15.45	Subject of the trauma, the witnesses Interview	August Gil-Matamala	Second generation testimony, witness lawyer
------------------	--	---------------------	--

16 - 17.30	Repression and Trauma in the late twentieth century First Interventions by:	Iñaki Márquez Pau Perez-Sales Ramon López	Institutional violence, structural, social and collective Trauma, guilt and mourning Consequences of torture in the late twentieth century
------------------	--	---	--

Coffee Break (from 17.30 to 19)

19 - 19.30	Hidden Transmission (an inheritance without a will) Speakers: grandchild of reprisals	Xavier Costa Maite Blazquez Guadalupe Martín Milanka Ljulojevic	València Mallorca Còrdova Bòsnia
------------------	--	--	---

Closing session

19.45 - 20.15	Seminar closing session	Suzanne Kaplan Anna Miñarro
---------------------	-------------------------	--------------------------------	--

Memory Programs Barcelona City Council in collaboration with Catalunya Psychology College
Seminar Coordinator: Anna Miñarro